DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brida [US 4,964,092].

Brida discloses a watch [figures 1-4; abstract] comprising a case [1], a passage/sleeve [4] which is open at both ends and extends approximately parallel to the dial face of the case and through which a watchband/bracelet [2] can be passed is developed in the bottom of the case, the cross section of the sleeve/passage is substantially equal to the cross section of the watchband/bracelet [column 2, lines 28-30], whereby a slight force is needed to make the bracelet slide in the passage, and the watch remains in position when the bracelet is worn.

It is inherent that the watchcase comprises a movement placed within its housing to facilitated time telling mechanisms.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Della Felice [US 6,130,861]; Braun et al. [US 4,742,503]; D. J Hill [US 3,521,798].
